Erie to Pittsburgh Trail

MISSION STATEMENT

"The Erie to Pittsburgh Trail Alliance (EPTA) is an active coalition of trail organizations, municipalities and individuals dedicated to the promotion, acquisition, development, and maintenance of a safe non-motorized trails network that connects the "Bayfront" in Erie to the "Point" in Pittsburgh. EPTA will seek to improve the quality of life for communities along the trail network while stimulating economic development and recreational tourism activities."

MORE ABOUT THE TRAIL:

- 60% of the route has been completed and includes a mix of pavement, crushed limestone, and dirt surfaces.
- Bike or hike through rural forests, small towns, and big cities.
- Travel across 21 bridges including the historic Belmar Bridge and through 2 tunnels.
- Explore the Bicentennial Tower, Flagship Niagara, Amish Countryside, Drake Well Museum, Oil Creek State Park, and Point State Park.
- Discover the industrial artifacts of the oil, coal, and railroad heritage of the region.
- Immerse yourself beside scenic rivers and views alongside a thriving wildlife habitat.
- Check out two additional connecting trails, the Redbank Valley Trail and the Sandy Creek Trail.
