Elevating Outdoor Recreation - Business Contest Agreement and Statement of Certification

By submitting an application to the Oil Region Alliance's 2026 Elevating Outdoor Recreation Business Contest (the Contest"), each applicant listed below agrees to the following conditions:

Compliance with Rules of the Contest. Each applicant has reviewed the contest rules ("the Rules") and terms and conditions ("the Terms"), and by his/her signature below certifies that this application and the individual or team it represents complies and agrees to abide by the Rules and Terms.

Waivers and Releases. Each applicant understands that the principals of the Contest, along with their employees, directors, and agents, are under no obligation to provide any advice or service to any applicant. Each applicant further understands that the Judges are volunteers and are under no obligation to provide any advice or service to any applicant. The views expressed by the Judges, organizers, and the organizers' representatives are their own and not those of any other person or entity.

Each applicant also understands and agrees that although the organizers of the Contest have taken and will take the steps described in the Rules and Terms regarding confidentiality of the ideas and plans submitted by the applicant(s), the legal protection of the plans submitted by the applicant(s) to the Contest is the sole responsibility of the applicant(s). In consideration of the time, expertise, and other resources provided by Contest officials, including Judges, organizers, and their representatives, each applicant hereby voluntarily releases each Contest official and their representatives from any further liabilities, responsibilities, and accountabilities relating to or arising out of such Contest officials; or organizer representative's participation in the Contest.

Each applicant grants permission to the Contest to publicize their name(s) and a description of their business plan if they are named a finalist or winner of the Contest.
